BANK OF ITALY LOOT IS FOUND NEAR UTAH CITY

Greater Part of $47,200 Taken
From San Francisco Bank Is Found Near Salt Lake

MUCH OF IT IS DUG UP

Several Thousand Found in Baskets Hanging From Rafters
In Boy's Garage

(By Universal Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 1. After a vain search in South America, Cata-zola and Mexico, the greater part of the $47,200 taken by Duke Rowan,
former teller of the Bank of Italy
here, was recovered yesterday at Bountiful, a suburb of Salt Lake City.

Rowan had bought a farm in the Bountiful community and, after he was arrested and brought back to San Francisco, told where he had hidden a quantity of his loot around
the place. S. T. McQuibbin, agent for the bank against loss, went to Bountiful.

Without informing the authorities
there that he was at work, he visited the farm with a spade. A jar
in the cellar of the farmhouse yielded several thousand dollars in currency. Several thousands more were found in a basket hanging from the rafters of the garage. Buried nearby
was a gunnysack containing a quantity of liberty bonds and other securities, and a buried sump can yielded a store of gold coin. He unearthed
both hoards.

Another $5,000 was found in a
safety deposit box in Salt Lake City bank and McQuibbin is continuing the search, using bank books
and safe deposit box receipts and keys
as clues, in the hope of recovering
the remaining funds or such of them as Rowan had not spent. All that he has found so far has been deposited in a Salt Lake bank.

Rowan, in his cell at the city
prison yesterday, was indignant that Mrs. Georgiana Martinez Brown, the woman who fled with him after he had taken the money, was not permitted to visit him. The police said they had prohibited the girl
from coming to see Rowan at the request of his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
J. E. Rowan of San Jose, but Rowan
himself said he thought the bonding company was responsible for the order.

Funeral Is Held For Mrs. Graham

Mrs. David Hopkins, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Adams of Fresno, returned from that city Wednesday, bringing the body of her mother, Mrs. D. Graham, who died a few days ago. Funeral services were held at the Truman Undertaking parlors yesterday.

OTHER WOMAN NAMED IN DIVORCE SUIT

Charging that her husband took a young girl into their home over her protest and because of his alleged relations with her was arrested on a statutory charge, Mrs. Paula Schmidt
of Richmond yesterday filed suit against Alfred Schmidt. The couple married in 1923 and separated on December 24 last. They have a year old daughter, whose custody Mrs.
Schmidt asks. She seeks alimony
of $50 monthly.

MARRIAGE ANNULLED

Superior Judge H. V. Alvarado yesterday annulled the marriage of Mrs.
Bessie McDaniel and Willie McDaniel of Richmond. The annulment
was asked by Mrs. McDaniel.

VISCOUNT CECIL RECEIVING FIRST WOODROW WILSON FOUNDATION AWARD OF $25,000 AND BRONZE MEDAL

Viscount Cecil of Chelwood is shown
receiving the medal from Norman H.
Davis, chairman of the Foundation
and former Under Secretary of State,
at a dinner given in New York City.
Mr. Davis addressed Viscount Cecil
as "Woodrow Wilson's spiritual successor." The $25,000 and the medal
were awarded for the year's most

meritorious service in the interest
of international peace based on justice. Viscount Cecil was British Minister of the Blockade and Assistant Secretary for Foreign Af-
airs during the war, and in 1917
he went to Paris to collaborate with President Wilson in fashioning the League of Nations.

Plans Completed For Natatorium Building Here

Plans have been completed by Architect James T. Nabett of Richmond, and bids will be called for shortly for the construction of a one-
and two-story concrete, brick and steel municipal natatorium building
for the city of Richmond. It will occupy a plot of land 100 by 205
feet and will cost about $85,000.

The exterior will be of brick and plaster. The swimming pool will be 15 by 60 feet. The children's pool will range from one to three feet in depth and the adults' pool from three to nine feet in depth. Pools
will be lined four feet from the top.

Cosmopolitan Club Plans Entertainment

Plans for an entertainment were discussed at the meeting of the Cosmopolitan club last night held in the band house of the Richmond
Union high school. The entertainment will be given some time in February and will consist of a Pacific of all nations, about eleven nations will be represented. Following is the committee in charge: Mrs.
E. Axdel, Mrs. J. W. Shonte, Mrs. W.
W. Chapin, Mrs. T. Rodent, El
Cerrito, S. Hignera, Boushant, Janz,
Wilson and Noshier.

Election of officers also took place
which was as follows: Mrs. Jessie Wilson, president; Mrs. J. W. Shonte,
vice-president; Mrs. W. W. Chapin,
secretary and Mrs. Walter James,
treasurer.

BOY HAS ARM BROKEN

William Picton, Jr., son of Mr. and
Mrs. William Picton of 448 South
Twenty-eighth street, had his arm broken while the boy was trying to crank a Chevrolet. Dr. C. L. Abbott was called to attend to the case.

RICHMOND PLANS LONG STRIDES FORWARD, 1925

Ferry Service to San Francisco
To Be Only One of Features
Of New Development

BUILDING AND STREET WORK

Nearly Two Million Dollars Is Invested In New Homes;
$600,000 Street Work

With an assured payroll of one million dollars a month Richmond
takes the immediate future without fear of the boom and bust cycles
the hell weevil or Kansas tornadoes,
according to a summary prepared by
the Richmond Chamber of Commerce.

More than $600,000 is going to be spent here for street improvements
during the year. Nearly $2,000,000
will be invested in new homes, offices and stores, and business men
look for an increase in volume of patronage of not less than 15 per cent.

Richmond, undisputed claimant to fourth position in payroll cities in California, is just becoming awake
to her potentialities, says the chamber of commerce.

FERRY SERVICE

An element that is sure to give added impetus to the growth of this city in 1925 is the first-class ferry service which will be opened between Richmond and San Francisco
by the Southern Pacific on January 15. This line, operating three brand new boats, the El Paso, the New Orleans and the Klomath, will carry passengers and automobiles between the two cities.

Real estate brokers and property
owners predict that thousands of San Franciscans will try a change
from apartments to bungalows when they find how conveniently they may commute from Richmond.

The building of a first-class, modern hotel of 100 rooms or more, is one of the matters which the chamber of commerce has in mind. Eastern experts who specialize in community financing of hotels, will be on the ground soon and make a survey of the local situation and report their findings to the directors
of the chamber of commerce.

SWIMMING POOL

Richmond's new swimming pool,
for which the voters voted bonds,
will be completed and opened to the public during the year. This proposition will represent about $100,000
and will afford hot and cold baths
of fresh and salt water.

The War Memorial Building, in the heart of the city, is rapidly nearing completion. This will be a social clearing house for the community and with the lot, represents another $100,000.

The development of Tenth street
business property calls for half a million dollars and the eastern section of Macdonald avenue is rapidly
being filled with business blocks.

Investigation Continues In Mystery Fire

No proof of cause has been proven,
yet by those investigating the mystery fire that occurred at the Union Hotel on the West Side, New York's day, according to announcement made by Fire Chief W. P.
Cooper and Chief of Police Dan Cox
yesterday.

Chief Cooper says that there is little doubt in his mind but that the fire was of incendiary origin. The fire was heavily over insured, he said. Chief Cox agreed in his opinion of the cause, but no proof has been found as yet to verify these suppositions.

The Fire Chief Marshall's office
and the Richmond police will continue the investigation, Chief Cooper
said.

Message Tells Of Mother's Illness

Mrs. Clifton Bradley of 236 Ocean
avenue, left for Davenport, Wash.,
yesterday, after receiving word that her mother, Mrs. D. W. Jarvin was very ill. Mrs. Bradley was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. C. L.
Bartlett of Barstow, and will stay
until her mother is well on the way
to recovery.

Harbor Report Being Prepared

Major C. F. Leeds and G. F. Nicholson, engineers, who have made a survey of the Richmond harbor, preparatory to making a report to the Chamber of Commerce, are expected to have it in shape before February.
The report is to be drawn up in Los Angeles, where the men are at the present time. Guy W. Wolf, secretary manager of the chamber here,
plans to go to Los Angeles and aid
in the drawing up of the report.

Illness Strikes Visitor In Fresno

T. T. Cramer, a resident of this city, was taken suddenly ill at Fresno last Wednesday and was taken to the Bennett Sanitarium there. Mrs.
Cramer went to Fresno to be with her husband as soon as word was received. Cramer is employed by the Southern Pacific company as engineer, having a "run" from Richmond to Fresno.

Four Periods Represented In Veterans Ceremonies

For the first time on record in this country, four war veteran organizations, representing the periods
of strife and glory in the history
of the United States since the days
of the Civil War, held a joint installation of officers for this year.

The organizations that took part in the ceremonies were the Richmond Post of the Grand Army of the Republic, Dewey Camp of the United Spanish War Veterans, Honor Post
of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the American Legion.

The G. A. R. did not hold an installation of officers, but retained
their old officials for another year.
However, they had representatives present at the ceremonies. Some of those who held seats of honor at the installation were, G. L. Hendrick, commander; O. V. Wells, senior vice-commander; Henry Galvin, adjutant;
L. M. Gardner, chaplain, and C. H.
McCauley, who acted as officer of the day.

Spanish Veterans First
The first installation was that of Dewey Camp, United Spanish War
Veterans. George Marshall of Oakland, past department commander,
was the installing officer for Dewey
Camp. The officers installed were
C. H. Jungstrom, commander; E. E.
Grew, senior vice-commander; F. E.
Storey, junior vice-commander; W. A.
Ireland, officer of the day; C. E.
Phillips, officer of the guard; W. L.
Thompson, trustee. Other officers of the camp will be appointed by the commander in the near future.

The next installation was that of the Honor Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Richard Tolson of San Francisco was the installing officer. The officers installed were: Charles Washbaugh, commander; Edward Sagar, senior vice-commander; W. D.
Armstrong, chaplain; O. Hazlett,
quartermaster; Joseph LaMancusa,
officers of the day; H. D. Lane,
P. A. Hecker and E. E. Inman, delegates to the county council.

American Legion Installs
And for the Richmond Post of the American Legion, Col. M. M. Garrett, past commander of Walnut Creek
Post, acted as the installing officer.
The following men were installed:
George Tandy, commander; W. C.
Dobler, senior vice-commander; Benjamin J. Shaw, junior vice-commander;
J. H. Fitzpatrick, adjutant; A. G.
Papadakis, treasurer; J. E. Hill, chaplain; Charles W. S. John, historian; Fred Begorow, sergeant-at-arms; E. E. Inman, A. F. Browning
and John Hansen, members of the executive committee; W. A. Vickery
delegate to the county council.

Ralph Wood of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, presided at the ceremonies.

Banquet Is Served
Following the ceremonies a banquet was served and speeches made
by the various members present.
Music for the banquet was supplied by Dennis Shaw's orchestra, who earlier in the evening played at the opening of the new home of the Richmond Furniture store.

Ralph Wood acted as toastmaster
at the festive board. George Marshall, installing officer for the United Spanish War Veterans, spoke a few words on the co-operation of the Veterans organizations in Richmond,
and urged that the good work be kept continued.

Colonel M. M. Garrett of the American Legion, called attention to the uniqueness of the installation in that it is the first of its kind to be held in the country.

Several Talks Are Made
Richard Tolson of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, urged that good fellowship and harmony be kept as the key to the relations existing between the different organizations. He also urged that every war veteran should belong to some veteran organization.
The out-going officers of the organizations were called upon to give

County Milk Inspector Is Recommended

Recommendations that the county of Contra Costa make provision for the employment
of a veterinarian to insure proper supervision of the county's growing dairy industry, was made by Dr. C. R. Blake, of Richmond, county and city
health officer, in his annual report to the county board of supervisors yesterday.

With a systematic seals of
prices for milk and dairy inspection, Dr. Blake pointed out that the office could be made self sustaining. He urged the creation of the office as a step forward in protecting the health
of the people as well as a protection for the dairy industry.

DISEASES STAMPED OUT
In his report the physician
declares that the recent epidemic of infantile paralysis has been entirely stamped out and
that outside of incorporated
cities of which he has no record, there is not a single case of diphtheria.

Pythian Sisters Plan Banquet At Installation

The installation of officers scheduled for January 17, was postponed
until the Twenty-fourth of the month,
at the meeting of the Pythian Sisters in the Pythian temple last night.
This was done because of the many installations being held by the various other temples of the order
about the bay district on the date
first set.

Also two officers were elected:
Mrs. M. Michel, mistress of finance;
and Josephine Broiles, guard of the order. These officers had not been filled at the former election of officers, and it was put off until after the first of the year.

Visitors from the Woodbine temple
in San Diego were present at the meeting last night.

It is planned to have a banquet
follow the ceremonies on installation
night, and Nellie Hedson has been appointed chairman of the committee
to make arrangements.

A district deputy officer from Oakland will have charge of the installation. Audrey Delaney, excellent
chief, presided at the meeting.

President Aims Old Fashioned Inaugurations

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3. An old-time presidential inauguration next March with a big parade, plenty of fireworks and whatever else may be needed to make it the gallant occasion it once was, is now in prospect.

William T. Gallagher, Washington
banker, has been appointed by President Coolidge as the chairman of the citizens inaugural committee to have charge of the arrangements. The president will approve any plans that will not draw too heavily on the federal funds.

A short talk. All responded, and thanked the fellows for the co-operation that had been given to them
during their term of office.

The combined committee in charge
of the ceremonies and festivities
afterwards was as follows: E. E.
Grew, chairman; C. Jungstrom, both from the United Spanish War Veterans. From the Veterans of Foreign Wars, W. D. Wilson, E. E. Inman
and Charles Washbaugh, and from the American Legion were W. A.
Vickery, A. B. Corie and S. E. Ripley.

SHIPS PERILED IN TERRIFIC EASTERN STORM

Steamers Send Out S. O. S. Calls
As They Stagger Helplessly
In Raging Tempest

TRAINS ARE STORM BOUND

One Vessel Beached is Being Hampered to Pieces; Aquatania Is Held at Moorings

(By Universal Service)
NEW YORK, Jan. 3. Frantic with the mystery, the uncertainty and the peril that the expression "somewhere
in France" once carried, shipping on the Atlantic has become a "wait of the storm" tonight.

All day the wireless has recorded
this new sultan of the gale sweep Atlantic. One proud liner lies scuttled in 40 feet of water; another is staggering, more or less helpless;
three passenger steamers have called
for help and the great Aquatania
lies beached at its dock here, bil-
lard bound, hours behind sailing
time.

Steamers Lost, S. O. S. Calls

The Clodon, a Britisher, has not been heard from since Friday afternoon, when she lost one anchor off
the Jersey coast, until late tonight
when she docked in Brooklyn, relating a story of deadly peril.

An unidentified steamer is lost
in the "somewhere" off Seabright, N. J., where she last reported having run aground.

S. O. S. calls are coming in from the French steamer Dalmacy and the Rumanian ship Caracci. The United States shipping vessel Berbeck is believed to be in helpless condition
"somewhere" between Liverpool and New York, with a broken throat,
which it is not thought possible to rescue in the raging storm.

Clyde Liner Beached

The Clyde liner Mohawk was beached in Delaware bay, after 500
passengers and crew had been safely
transferred to rescue ships. The vessel, abandoned, is being lumbered
by the sea, and it appears as though
the tempest is going to hammer her
to pieces.

While the snow and storm swept
New York and the sea, hundreds of passengers were storm bound on trains and taxicabs, were left
bound at piers and railway stations.

Motorist Fined After Collision

A fine of $100 was levied on Frank Savko, 1550 Fifth street, Oakland,
yesterday by Justice John Roth, on a charge of reckless driving. A first charge was driving while intoxicated, but this was reduced on ac-
casion of Deputy District Attorney H.
P. Jacobs, who said that there was insufficient evidence to back up the charge.

It was while Savko was driving his car down San Pablo avenue, New Year's day and collided with the car driven by G. S. Gallagher of Berkeley, that the arrest was made. It is claimed by witnesses that Savko was driving on the left hand side of the street at the time of the accident.
Joe Naba of Fort Bragg was riding
with Savko at the time of the accident, but was not arrested.

BOY IS DOG BITTEN

T. Owens, 7 year old son of O.
T. Owens of San Pablo was bitten on the left arm by a dog yesterday afternoon. He was treated at the Abbott Emergency hospital. The wound is not serious.

RETURN FROM SOUTH
Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Salmi of 213 Fifteenth street returned yesterday from a week's visit with relatives in the southland.

WILL HOLD BACK THE PIT RIVER

The big dam being built by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company on the Pit River in Shasta County is being rapidly completed.

This dam will be 125 feet high, 500 feet long, 150 feet thick at the bottom and 18 feet thick at the top. It was started July 1924 and will be completed in the early spring of 1925.

It will back the water of the Pit up for a distance of 10 miles, forming an immense lake.

The big river is now flowing through the temporary flume. Immense piers are being built on the down stream side of the dam to break the force of the water which will flow over the dam.

To date 30,000 yards of concrete have been poured. In all 80,000 yards will be used.

The crest of the dam will become a part of the new county road which the Company has built into Burney Falls, a part of California's wonderland.

Start the New Year Right by Reading One of the New Books Which Started Circulation at Public Library Saturday

As one of your New Year's resolutions, why not plan to spend a few spare minutes each day in becoming acquainted with some of the interesting new books which are going into circulation at the public library on Saturday afternoon? A resolution such as this will prove educational as well as lasting. The books listed below cover a wide field, therefore they will appeal to practically all types of readers.

Keeping Up With Science

Slosson, 1924.

A collection of absorbing topics of timely interest, which tend to aid the unsentimental reader who desires to keep in touch with modern science.

Social Usage in America

Wade, 1924.

For twenty years Margaret Wade studied Washington society, having been social secretary to the wife of one of our vice presidents. She makes her book more than a collection of rules, by giving comments on their reasons for being.

Two Years in the French West Indies—Hearn, 1923.

Here, Lafcadio Hearn a delightful picture of his sojourn at Martinique in the French West Indies, where he gained some of his most interesting and romantic literary impressions for which he has become famous.

Joshua Barney—Paine, 1924

Ralph Paine "rescues" from obscurity an almost forgotten hero of revolutionary times Joshua Barney, a forgotten hero of Blue Water, and makes of his exploits a true narrative of adventure by land and by sea. It is a biography with all the fascination of a romance.

Wonders of Salvage—Masters, 1924.

"To the average person a diving apparatus is a weird apparition. Its construction and principles of operation are almost unknown." Little too, seems known about the salvaging of ships. From Mr. Masters book, one learns much about these and ships that he never knew before.

"You Takes Your Choice"—Gilbert, 1924.

Character sketches of the six presidential candidates, particularly Coolidge. "Students of men and politics will delight in its irony, its insight and its chuckling."

My Eskimo Friends—Flaherty, 1924.

"Word pictures of Eskimo life and other pictures, too—by one who spent two winters among the people of the Arctic."

The New Spoon River Masters, 1924.

This is a second collection of epigrams by the author of the famous Spoon River anthology. There is a new Spoon River portrayed, "with a new set of feelings and ideals—a standardized and commercialized Spoon River."

Sea Tracks of the Speejaaks Collins, 1923.

In following the sea tracks of the "Speejaaks," readers will find an opportunity to see interesting parts of the world by "book instead of Cook," as is usually the custom. Dale Collins was ordered to take an ocean voyage for his health. The outcome of his orders is presented in his entertaining book of adventure and travel on the sea.

Pearls and Pepper Utter, 1924.

A further contribution of Mr. Robert Utter, professor of English at the University of California, who has written several worth while books on English usage. This time he offers a group of essays.

The Road to Beauty: An Adventure In Rejuvenation—Byrbridge, 1924.

Helpful chapters, principally for middle aged women, who are interested in health rules, care of the skin, the hair, diet and beauty habits.

Instead of Scribbling—Lutz, 1924.

A book which endorses to teach young people to draw worth while pictures, instead of scribbling aimlessly.

Distressing Dialogues—Boyd, 1924.

"Laugh provoking dialogues which originally appeared in 'Vanity Fair'."

The Skyline Trail—Davies, 1924.

A book of western verse by a western girl who won the Emily Chamberlain Cook prize and the Bohemian club prize for poetry while still attending the University of California.

NATURAL conditions which are almost perfect combined with expert planning, make the 18 hole course at Fairmeade a masterpiece of golf course construction.

John Duncan Dunn, the internationally famous golf course architect who laid out Fairmeade, made this comment on the natural advantages of the course—"Rarely do I find all the conditions so ideal; perfect topography, exceptionally good soil, unlimited water, magnificent scenery and easy accessibility."

Strong language, this—but most of the golfers who have inspected the course feel that he has understated the facts.

WATCH THIS PAPER JAN. 11TH
FOR FURTHER DETAILSCast of All Nations With Douglas Fairbanks in "Thief of Bagdad" at California Theatre For Three Days

The cast of Douglas Fairbanks' new picture, "The Thief of Bagdad", which commences an engagement at the California theatre tomorrow, for three days only, represents every country in the world with the exception of Siam and Greenland, and one of the three extras who claimed to be from Iceland admitted having spent two years in Greenland.

Being laid in an imaginary locale with fanciful settings and environment, it was essential that this picture include as many bizarre personalities as possible. Mere types would not answer this need, for, strangely enough, every principal character in the production is what casting directors call "an acting part". This means that actual histrionic ability was as much a requirement as unusual cast of feature.

Doug is said to have spared no expense in finding the right people and the result is as a playlet a gathering of people as ever embarked upon common enterprise.

First of all there is an Irish director, Raoul Walsh. This was a good start, for it required real Irish fighting qualities to control the battle of divorce temperament that surged very wildly at times. The leading woman was Julianne Johnston, a Swedish girl, recruited from the ranks of the Morgan troupe of dancers.

The Mongol slave, a part that required emotional subtlety and balance, was played by Anna May Wong, a Chinese girl, educated in America. Her Chinese name is Lew Wong Song, and means two yellow willows. When the picture was being filmed Miss Wong almost walked out on her job because an enthusiastic press agent misunderstood the translation of her name and published it as "two yelling widows." The other two slaves were played by Etta Lee and Winter Blossom, both of Mongolian extraction, while the Mongol magician was played by Sadakichi Hartmann, whose mother was Japanese and whose father was German.

The evil man was played by Snitz Edwards of German parentage and the Caliph by Brandon Hurst, an Englishman. The soothsayer was characterized by Toto du Crow, an Alsatian. In the part of the awakener was Charles Stevens, a Scotchman.

Thus, down the list, the leading characters check off nation after nation, until we reach Noble Johnson, a full-blooded Sioux Indian, and M. Comont, French to the core.

The difficult and important characterization of the Mongol Prince was the work of So-Jin, a very famous Japanese actor, who is perhaps the only great Shakespearean actor that Japan has produced. His counsellor was delineated by Kamayama Nambu, who was associated with So-Jin in his native land. The picturesque sworder was played by Sam Baker, a Senegambian. Of course, being Oriental in atmosphere, the production required many Oriental types for its mass scenes and it was not unusual for little groups to include seven or eight different nationalities of the far East. Moroccans, Tripolitans, Arabs, East Indians, and Senegalese predominated, but all the eunuchs were Abyssinians. There was one player in the cast by the way, a full-blooded, 100 per cent American, who exemplified the rule set forth in the first paragraph—that acting ability was an essential requirement in the casting of the picture. His name is Douglas Fairbanks and he is quite well known in Hollywood.

Determination of Sex Is Coming

(The Universal Service)
OXFORD, Jan. 3.—Within the next 50 years, in the opinion of Professor Julian Huxley, man may have solved the problem of the determination of sex.

"If such a thing does become possible," he said today, "the result might easily be chaos."

"All sorts of questions which have never been thought of before would suddenly become urgent."

"One of the troubles of our civilization today is that it is not until a condition of things becomes chronic that efforts to remedy the congested state of the towns lag far behind the increase in the evil they are designed to cure."

"In this matter of determination of sex, I feel that it would be well for the problem to be considered early. It is bound to come. Great strides have been made."

"It is now known, for example, that in mammals the male-determining cells and the female-determining cells are both produced by the male, and that they can be distinguished in size microscopically."

"A lot of work is being done on the problem of separating them. When that is achieved, determination of sex will be practically accomplished."

"At present the ratio between the sexes at birth is very constant. It is between 102 to 107 male babies to every 100 females."

"It is very undesirable that the natural ratio should be interfered with. No one could say what the results might be."

Professor Huxley does not think that the determination of sex will become an easy matter. He sees it as something which can be achieved in a laboratory and with costly and delicate apparatus.

"My point rather is this," he said. "We do not know what the results of this research may be. Of late years there has been a growing co-operation between the research worker and the administrator."

"It is beginning to be realized that

Curwood Story
at the Richmond

A picture which combines magnificent scenic beauty with a thrilling story is "The Valley of Silent Men," adapted from James Oliver Curwood's famous novel of the same name as a Cosmopolitan production, and released by Paramount.

Those familiar with the novel, which ran serially in Good Housekeeping Magazine in 1920, will recall that it is a story of the Royal North West Mounted Police, with the Rocky Mountains for a background. It is a picture of tremendous power, baring as it does the souls of five men and a woman who are isolated in a little narrow valley.

For the purpose of imparting this realism to the screen, the entire company went to Banff, in the Canadian Rockies, and there practically every foot of the action was enacted and photographed. The result, apart from the dramatic value of the production, is a picture of unsurpassed scenic beauty.

The picture, which was directed by Frank Borzage, and which features Alma Rubens at the head of a small but powerful cast, is coming to the Richmond theatre today only.

Other features on the same program include "Pay Up," a comedy riot; "Kinograms," built like a news-paper.

the results of research in pure science are the real determining factors of future history. Considered in this light they are of the highest importance to the administrator.

"I suggest that the determination of sex might conceivably be a subject for the Medical Research Council."

Max Bradfield at
The California
Theatre Today

Starting the New Year with a Bang the management of the California theatre has secured, by special arrangement, California's Premier entertainers E. Max Bradfield's Versatile Band, from the Palace Hotel, and popular K. P. O. broadcasters, as the feature attraction of its first big New Year vaudeville bill, in conjunction with the screen feature "The Battling Orioles." Hal Roach's feature comedy, starring Glenn Tryon.

The inimitable Max has a bunch of new specialties and the very latest Symphonies and Syncopated selections for his auditors approval. Novelties however is featured and there is a lot of clever clowning with other artists on the bill besides the soloist in the band.

As usual there will be a number of requests numbers and intending patrons can leave their favorite number at the Box Office and in turn they will be rendered on the stage.

Eddie Harkness with his box of tricks besides joining in the fun fest with the Orchestra has a comedy musical act that is a scream from start to finish. He has a pair of dexterous hands and a likeable personality.

"Ma Jong's Chinese Inn" is offered by Kelly and Craig a clever couple with Kelly impersonating the oriental and Miss Craig a tourist and customer. The latter is an able foil for her partners funniest. Some cute imitations on the burlesque order are worthy of special mention.

As the screen feature Hal Roach presents "The Battling Orioles," with Glenn Tryon, a gay and spirited romance, a laughter coated pill of philosophy and the pennant winning funmaker of the year.

The hilarious story of a flock of once gay old birds known as "The Battling Orioles" the hardest hitting ball team in suits in 1874 who after fifty years of goity and grochy retirement are rejuvenated and regain their old time batting average. It's a home run for happiness. Other features on the same program include "Nuttin' Inn" a comedy scream; "Kinograms," built like a newspaper; Carl Richards California Orchestra; Larry F. Canelo, at the organ.

Better Late Than Never

You all know that old saying.

Honestly, we are ashamed of ourself for not mentioning the fact before, but, truly, we have been too busy with the holiday rush, and holiday vacations, and everything, to tell you how we have appreciated your kindness and liberality during the four months we have had charge of the Job Printing department of the Record-Herald, but now we will take a few moments time, and a small space to wish you, one and all, a most prosperous and

Happy New Year

We want you all to feel that while we have done our part in proving to you that our printing is second to none, yet we have resolved to do even better in the New Year. Our aim shall be to give the public SERVICE with a Capital S. Of late we have been turning out some printing for various institutions about town, of which we are truly proud—pardon the reference. We wish you would ask people where they get their printing, and if it is a good job of printing you will find it came from—well, now, it came from a good printer—and that is the kind we are. Nothing would please us better than for you to make us prove it. Some may say that we toot our own horn a bit too much, but if we don't toot it, who will. The hen cackles when she does a good stunt, and why not we?

RICHMONDSTORE HAS IMPRESSIVE HOUSE WARMING

Glistening white walls, bordered by finishing of darker shade, rows upon rows of large easy chairs, various colored rugs, ranging from a bright blue to the somber shade effected by our grandfathers, colored lamps of all sizes and shapes, grouped about the entrance and off to one side, among the easy chairs and beneath the soft lights cast by the floor lamps, were huge bouquets in the shape of horseshoe wreaths and in other forms, beating across their face the words success in golden letters; the soft strain of a waltz, similes, and huge crowds circulating about, marked the opening of the new home of the Richmond Furniture store last night, at 222 Tenth street.

The doors of the store were opened at 7 o'clock and closed at 11 o'clock. The crowds began to arrive early, and as the shows and various social functions released more people later in the evening, the number of spectators increased until the store was packed to the very doors.

Program Is Given

To amuse the young, a program of merit was provided by the main event. Through the evening, piano, show orchestra, and vocal soloists were given by Mrs. Minna Carter, mother of Harry and Bert Carter, managers of the store; Bert Carter, and by Valma Shain Palmer, accompanied by Ed Rodgers. Both of the latter are retailers, and demonstrators of the occasional at the store will give demonstrations of it at the store all next week. They are from San Francisco.

The songs sung by the entertainers were as follows: Mrs. Minna Carter, "My Birthday," "With You," "As We Part"; Bert Carter, "Calling Me Home to You," "Morning," "Un-Bill," and "Follow the Swallow"; Valma Shain Palmer, "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise" and "Roses in the Rain."

Four Prizes Awarded

Following the program, four prizes were given away. W. T. Helms and Charles S. Rowick, prominent men of the city, aided by a little girl, who drew the lucky numbers from a glass bowl, conducted the drawing. The winners of the prizes were: First prize, Occidental gas range, won by Charles P. Tuttle, 1629 Clinton avenue; second prize, Axminster rug, won by Mrs. McLeod, 432 Taylor street; third prize, Mrs. P. Carlson, Twenty-ninth street, bee vac cleaner; fourth prize, T. J. Ryan, 429 Barrett avenue, a large floor lamp.

The bouquets were many and numerous and included in their number those from the business firms of the city, and from many individual well wishers. Some of the business firms who sent bouquets to the opening were the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, Pioneer Electric company, Richmond Syndicate, Merchants' association, Pacific Fruitvale company, Mechanics bank, Lusk, hotel, and many other organizations of the town.

In opening the program, Fred A. Carrick, chairman of the day sale, said: "An incident in the history of the city is being given to give the buying public of this city quality with the best of service on the part of Harry R. Carter, vice president and general manager of the Richmond Furniture company has made possible the house warming which we are celebrating this evening."

Carrick complimented Carter and his assistants in the service they were rendering growing Richmond. He also stressed the point that it had been noticeable not only to himself but to others who had watched the building go up and the new stock installed, that the property owners, builders, architect and contractors worked in an unprejudiced harmony and accord throughout the construction, which played a prominent part in the first-class edifice that has been erected to the business development in Richmond.

London Gossip

Many social leaders in Mayfield, renowned for the lavishness of their entertaining, are half starving! In plain language they are practicing the latest weight-reducing methods in order to attain that standard of slenderness, so necessary to comply with the rules and regulations laid down by the fashionable dressmakers.

No delicacy can tempt the dieticians. No favorite dish can induce them to break the rules of the Hardy street specialists who prescribe fruit and salad meals and little else to counteract aciduliposis. Sweets and chocolates, pastries and muffins, all the pleasant things enjoyed before the tubular skirt came in vogue, are ignored.

WILL ATTEND FUNERAL

To attend the funeral of her father, Mrs. M. Labourdette and son, John, left for Fresno, Thursday. Mrs. Labourdette's father lived here twenty years ago.

Strict abstinence has to be practiced if the dieter's advice is to be of use. The tables at a recent party given by a notable Mayfield hostess were crowded with delicious things utterly neglected. The guests would not even eat plain cake. They nibbled, instead, slices of vitamin wheat bread and butter, and drank weak tea.

The stoutest women, hitherto the best tempered, showed that in the struggle for slenderness they had grown bad-tempered.

WORK STARTED ON LOCAL AIR LANDING FIELD

Two Runways 1,000 Feet Long
Will Be Constructed At Field Next Week

Announcement was made yesterday by the Chamber of Commerce officials that two runways, 250 feet wide by 1,000 feet long, will be erected at right angles to each other at the Richmond air landing field next week.

At the present time every effort is being made to put the field in shape. Forty gallons of sulphur and volumes of sulphuric acid have been used to exterminate the squirrels, rats and other pests that have furrowed up the field.

Plans are being made by the chamber to open the field for commercial flying, and it is expected that a big air circus will be staged some time in March to inaugurate the field to the use of the flyers.

Old Christmas Trees Are Fire Menace Is Claim

An announcement was issued yesterday by Fire Chief W. P. Cooper, urging all families who are still keeping their Christmas trees in evidence, to be especially careful of starting any fires, and to dispose of the trees as soon as possible.

The chief says that the holidays have passed without any fires, but the danger is not yet past, because many people are still keeping the Christmas trees in the house and they are liable to catch fire at any time, if particular care is not taken.

All are urged to get rid of the trees at once by either hauling them away or burning them up, but he says by no means should the trees be stored in the house, because there is always danger of fire.

Richmond Damage Suit Expected to Run Several Days

The suit against Dr. A. B. Hinkley, Richmond chiropractor, brought by Mrs. Anna Gaster of Oakland in the Alameda county superior court, is expected to be continued several days more before a decision is reached. The suit is for $50,000.

Mrs. Gaster testified yesterday that she was standing in the safety station waiting for a street car and Dr. Hinkley was on the wrong side of the street when he struck her. Dr. Hinkley contends he was driving on the right side of the street and the woman stepped from the sidewalk in front of his car. Dr. Hinkley is supported in his contention by passengers in his car.

During the trial Mrs. Gaster took the witness stand and submitted to a test in an effort to prove she was paralyzed in one leg. A pin was stuck into the injured leg, which did not pain her, but she screamed when a similar test was made on the other leg.

Pierce and Carlson, with a firm of Oakland attorneys are defending the case.

Richmond Doctor Sued for $25,000 In County Court

Suit for $25,000 was instituted yesterday against C. M. Bumgarner, Richmond physician, by Sam Butalia, proprietor of a San Pablo soft drink establishment, who charges that the death of his wife, Bessie Butalia, in January, 1923 followed negligent treatment of her by Dr. Bumgarner while she was in a Richmond hospital. The suit was filed through Attorney Will Roberson.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Corner Ninth and Nevins, C. G. Lindemann, minister.

There will be another unique, interesting, and inspiring service this evening at 7:30. Besides two musical specialties, the "Big Sing" and a sermon by the pastor on the subject "The Initial Cost and the Up-keep of New Year's Resolutions," the beautifully colored slides depicting scenes from the nativity of Jesus, which failed to arrive for last Sunday evening's service, will be shown. There will also be the Illumination of the electric cross. These services are growing in attendance and interest.

At 11:00 o'clock the pastor will speak on the subject "Leveling Mountains." There will also be special music.

Our Sunday school meets at 9:15 a. m. There is a class for every member of the family. Miss Reba Sanders class will have charge of the opening exercises. The offering will go for missions.

The Epworth league meets at 6:30 p. m. Young people not attending elsewhere are cordially invited.

Monday evening the first week of prayer service will be held in the Community Methodist church. Watch announcements in the papers.

The Ladies Aid Society meets Wednesday afternoon at the church. A full attendance is desired as this is the time for the annual election of officers.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society meets with Mrs. L. C. Moody, 164 Twelfth street, Thursday afternoon.

The Richmond Church Fellowship supper will be held at St. Edmund's Episcopal church Thursday evening at 6:15 o'clock. A good program has been prepared.

On account of the week of prayer services the official board meeting will be held after prayer meeting Wednesday, January 14.

There will be another fine Family Night program Friday, consisting of a "Big Sing" and the famous picture, "The Ninth Commandment." You will need to come early to get a good seat.

SPANISH DAYS TO BE SHOWN IN BIG PARADE

Burlesque Launching, Bathing Girl Revue to Be Two Of Features of Fiesta

The Spanish settlers of old, with their hardy hood and intangible of romance, suggesting strange lands and wild adventure, will be portrayed in a pageant to signalize the opening of the ferry service between Richmond and San Francisco, January 15.

A two day celebration is planned for the fourteenth and fifteenth of this month.

Besides the pageant, there will be bathing beauties, a burlesque ship launching by Father Neptune, floats and masques, all in the big parade of the 15th. And on the night of the fourteenth there will be an invitational buffet dinner-dance, with speaking in the evening.

COMMITTEE MEETS MONDAY

The Chamber of Commerce here, announced the preliminary plans yesterday. These, however, are subject to elaboration and change when the general committee, appointed by Mayor J. H. Plate, meets at the Chamber of Commerce rooms next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

At the meeting of the Merchants association committee Friday afternoon, it was decided to merge with the general committee. The men on the Merchants' committee are: C. C. Kratzer, E. B. Bull, F. S. Newsom, Frank Kettelhut, Fred B. LaMoine, and W. Mayer.

The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce has placed its domestic trade department in charge of the arrangements to be made at that end.

On the fifteenth the program as outlined by the trade department, will accumulate with a luncheon at the San Francisco Commercial club, under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Southern Pacific company is also doing all in its power to aid in the fiesta that is being planned.

COMMITTEE IS NAMED

The committee in charge at Richmond is composed of the following:

Guy W. Wolf, chairman; H. A. Johnston, A. W. Mueller, John F. Galvin, G. E. Milnes, J. P. Strom, W. D. Mason, E. M. Downer, Fred B. LaMoine, C. R. Beatty, Frank Mero, W. T. Helms, P. M. Sanford, C. S. Renwick, Harry Ellis, H. W. Wernse, O. S. Huckaba, A. C. Paris, J. A. McVittie, D. J. Hall, George Tandy, John I. Collins, Aubrey Wilson, E. B. Bull, C. C. Kratzer, F. S. Newsom, Frank Kettelhut and W. Mayer.

Shotgun Squad Patrols Streets of East Richmond

Hold-up men seem to have taken fright from the action of Chief of Police Dan Cox, and no longer ply their trade in the East Richmond and Mira Vista districts. Chief Cox recently detailed an automobile shotgun patrol for the districts, and no robberies have been reported there since that time. The machine is equipped with powerful search lights, which make it possible to seek out the midnight stranger.

Parents Receive Congratulations

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Zimmerman are receiving congratulations since the birth of a little girl Friday morning, January 2, in the Richmond Maternity hospital.

Mrs. Zimmerman was prior to her marriage, Miss Genevieve Meyers of Petaluma. Zimmerman is employed by the Standard Oil company and belongs to the Masonic fraternity. Dr. W. S. Lucas, was the attending physician.

Steal Clothing From Apartment

It was reported to the police yesterday by A. E. Hedges and E. W. Himmels, that their apartment at the St. Catherine apartments on Seventh street, between Macdonald and Bissell avenues had been robbed of shirts and other clothing valued at $25.

$60,000 PAID IN RUM FINES IN PAST YEAR

Contra Costa County Liquor
Dealers Pay Less Money
Than Previous Year
(spanish days)

Contra Costa county bootleggers and liquor dealers paid more than $60,000 in fines for violation of the Wright Act in 1924, according to a review of fines made in Martinez yesterday.

Fines for the year in the court of Justice of the peace Frank Glass totaled $30,180, and Judge Glass estimates that he handled about 60 per cent of the Wright Act violations cases arising from arrests made by county officers.

Including fines made by municipal judges it is estimated the total of liquor law fines for 1924 will exceed $60,000.

Fines imposed during 1924 for liquor law cases fell below the record established in Judge Glass' court in 1923 when a total of $11,480 was collected. In the two years' bootleggers contributed $71,960 to the public's coffers.

The total of fines imposed by Judge Glass for the year was $37,325 against $47,809 in 1923. Fines for peace disturbance, motor violations and other miscellaneous offenses are included in these figures. Twenty-five cases charging violations of liquor laws are still on Judge Glass' docket for disposal. Liquor law fines ranged from $300 to $500.

LITTLE THINGS THAT COUNT

There are so many little things about funeral arrangements that only a competent and experienced funeral director remembers to do. When our services are required, it is a real satisfaction to know that everything may be entrusted to us, and that it will be done thoroughly, and with tactful and sympathetic understanding.

Official Paper Of The City Of Richmond, California

There is another very important point. It is the gross unfairness of singling out any one commodity to carry a great load of taxation to produce revenues for the whole people. The varying proposals which have been made would place upon gasoline a tax of 23 per cent to more than 30 per cent of the wholesale price of gasoline in San Francisco. Let any merchant ask himself how he would like to have such a burden thrown upon his own commodity. It would undoubtedly curtail consumption, for the higher the price of a commodity the lower the consumption, whether the commodity be shoes, clothing, food, or what-not.

COMING—A Revival, beginning January 11, by Manuel B. Segura.

GRACE LUTHERAN CHURCH

Redmen's hall. Eleventh and Nevins streets. S. T. Hines, Ph. D. minister. E. J. Evans, supt. of the Sunday school. Mrs. H. W. Winkler, organist.
Sunday school begins at 10 o'clock. Parents are urged to come and bring their children with them. Songs of praise in which everyone can take part, and a clear explanation of the Sunday school lesson are offered to those who attend. The subject under discussion will be "Christ's Triumphant Entry" as a king. Christ entered Jerusalem. Will he enter your heart in the same way?

At the 11 o'clock service, the pastor will speak on the subject, "Going Forward," having for its historical background the parting of the waters of the Red Sea so that the children of Israel might pass through and escape from their pursuers. The Egyptian host. When Moses was in doubt as to which way to turn, the Red Sea in front and the Egyptians behind them, God told Moses to "Go Forward." When there is no other course to follow, under God's own terms, this command comes to each one of us. There is always a way out of every difficulty, with God's help. A closed door to our future success will always open by continual pushing. At the beginning of the New Year let us "Go Forward" with a good heart, a strong hope, a great faith and a firm assurance to secure our reward. But most important of all, let us go with the Lord's presence always with us, not in the form of a "pillar of cloud and of fire" as in Moses' day, but as an invisible controlling spirit.

At this service there will be the installation of the Church Council. Those assuming the duties of elder are E. J. Evans and C. H. Bastian; of deacon: are O. E. Borgstrom, F. E. Elsassner, E. C. Heyde and H. W. Winkler.
Sunday evening at 6:30 a "Luther League" will be organized. Music talks on the subject of the evening and informal discussions will constitute the program.

Our subject this Sunday evening will be "How can we develop the Spirit of Friendliness." All members and friends of Grace Mission are invited to come out and join this new organization.

A hearty invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

In reciprocation of the wonderful cure effected through the medium of Dr. Wong Him's herbs and his thorough knowledge of every human ailment, I desire to state briefly the terrible sufferings experienced by myself for other thirty years, thus guiding anyone who may desire relief from attacks of any nature:

I had been afflicted with cancer and Bright's Disease, also catarrh of the head for a period of over thirty years. Learning of the extraordinary cures resulting from the herb treatments of Dr. Wong Him, I decided to seek relief if possible through this course, being to some extent skeptical, due to failures of other eminent specialists to effect any amount of relief.

A complete treatment of the above herbs have resulted in relieving me entirely of these affliction and my head has been cleared of all traces of catarrh. Pains in back and headaches have ceased and am again able to enjoy perfect health.

The above has been absolutely unsolicited and my only home is that same may prove of great benefit to all sufferers who may read it.

LOCAL BOOST BODIES LEASE NEW OFFICES

The Richmond Merchants' association will occupy jointly with the Richmond Chamber of Commerce five of the fourteen offices to be installed in the $10,000 two story brick building, which will be built at the northwest corner of Tenth and Macdonald avenue, according to announcement made yesterday.

Next week bids will be opened for the construction of the building. It is being financed by Mrs. G. McElhinney of Oakland.

"Thief of Bagdad" At The California Theatre Next Week

Juranne Johnston, who impersonates the Princess with Douglas Fairbanks in "The Thief of Bagdad" at the California theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, wears in the picture the footwear of Zuleika, a real Persian daughter of a ruler. Miss Johnston has an interesting collection of Oriental slippers and sandals. She hopes to go to Paris some day and see the one notable exhibit in existence, formed by Jules Jacquemont, now being shown in the Chiny Museum.

The first footwear of which there is any knowledge, says Miss Johnston, "was a sandal, which consisted of a sole attached to the foot, generally by leather thong. From the time of The Arabian Nights, and to the present, the sandal of plaited grass, palm fronds, silk, and other perishable material, is the most common foot covering among Oriental nations."

"When the climate demanded greater protection for the foot the primitive race shaped a rude shoe out of a single piece of untanned hide, which was laced up with a thong, so making a complete covering."

"Out of these two elements,—sole without upper—and upper without sole—grew the perfect shoe, a combination of both."

"Shoes were made by hand until 1809, when a patent was granted to David Meade Randolph. At the time of the Civil War, Gordon McKay had a patent on machine-made shoes for twenty-one years, and made a vast fortune before it expired."

"American inventors are foremost in creating machinery for the various operations in shoe making. The father of the modern shoe is Charles Goodyear, son of the famous rubber man."

"It is in the artistic hand created shoe, however, that my interest lies, and it is these personal, ornamented oddities that comprise my collection."

Christmas Seal Report Requested

The remainder of the Christmas seals and the money should be turned in by the members at the meeting of the P. T. A. federation tomorrow, January 5, in the Roosevelt Junior high school.

Luncheon will be served at 12:00 and the executive board will have a meeting immediately after the luncheon.

The federation will have a business session at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, all presidents and chairmen are especially urged to attend.

AUSTEN CHAMBERLAIN, BRITISH FOREIGN MINISTER, AND PREMIER HERRIOT DISCUSS THE DAWES PLAN

This photograph shows the British Cabinet member and M. Herriot outside the Quai d'Orsay in Paris as they were having an informal

British Government to Issue Long Hidden State Papers

LONDON, Jan. 3.—A number of State papers dealing with the origins of the war are to be issued by the Foreign Office.

Two well-known historical writers, Mr. G. P. Gooch and Mr. H. W. V. Temperley, will edit a collection of these official documents, which, in the Foreign Secretary's words, "bear on the general European situation out of which the war arose."

It will be seen that the terms of reference are wide, and the two historians will be able to gain access to any relevant documents up to the year 1914.

This important decision on Mr. Austen Chamberlain's part represents a change of policy.

Foreign Publications

Dr. R. W. Seton-Watson drew Mr. Chamberlain's attention to the effect created in foreign countries by Great Britain's neglect to publish official documents dealing with the origins of the war.

The German, Austrian and Russian Foreign Offices have published voluminous documents of this kind, which have been used for propaganda purposes and Great Britain's silence has undoubtedly had a harmful effect on our prestige abroad.

The previous Foreign Secretary, Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, had already decided to publish a collection of the papers from the British archives, and Mr. Chamberlain now intends to carry out his predecessor's decision.

A minor innovation is the Foreign Secretary's announcement that in future the records of the Foreign Office will be open to those engaged on historical research up to the year 1878. Previously the limit was 1860.

One assumes that some future date a Foreign Secretary will grant permission to historians to examine the documents relating to the war period itself.

Gigantic Labor

The labors entailed will then be gigantic.

For each of the war years there are something like 200,000 separate documents filed in the Foreign Office archives, and many of them are volumes in themselves. Of course these are all catalogued under their several subjects, and many of them deal with minor and ephemeral issues. In the future there will have to be a close sifting.

The official papers which descended on the Foreign Office during and since the war are packed in files which reach from floor to ceiling of room after room. Several of the apartments which in a happier age were used for official entertainments, have now been encroached upon by this rising tide of documents. The creation of many new States since the war has doubled the volume of the flood.

London Gossip Notes

Writing in his "Parish Magazine," the Rev. A. Wellesley Orr, vicar of St. Paul's, Kingston Hill, Surrey, replies to the critics of a letter he wrote in the October issue of the magazine when he spoke of many women as "carmined their bins and walking chemists' shops."

"Apparently," says the vicar, "the vociferousness of opinion, condemned me as a kill-joy and a woman-hater. Woman-hater, indeed! Bless their dear hearts! It is because I do not hate them that I loathe to see some of them spoiling God's gift of natural beauty by the hideousness of artificial aids."

"Even whilst we are signing the marriage registers in the vestry the bride may get in a few moments' work before the mirror with a powder-puff, scissors, and a bottle. And then—ay, the Saints preserve us!—the man who came into church in love with a blushing blonde takes out on his arm a blooming hopped brunette."

"Some wives are so constantly changing their appearance that their husbands live in perpetual dread of being arrested for bigamy."

How romance and a wealthy marriage have come to a London mannequin has just been told.

The beauty of Maya Boyeva, a young Russian refugee of noble descent, has long impressed the many clients of Reville's.

Last summer she went to the Russian Red Cross hall. She had had several proposals, but that night she made the acquaintance of a wealthy young man from Canada, Mr. Harold Baker.

His wooing was ardent, and the romance has now culminated in a secret wedding.
